What principles do these instructions make practical?

Read the following passage in the group:

Colossians 3:18-4:6 Wives, be subject to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord. <sup>19</sup> Husbands, love your wives and never treat them harshly. <sup>20</sup> Children, obey your parents in everything, for this is your acceptable duty in the Lord. <sup>21</sup> Fathers, do not provoke your children, or they may lose heart. <sup>22</sup> Slaves, obey your earthly masters in everything, not only while being watched and in order to please them, but wholeheartedly, fearing the Lord. <sup>23</sup> Whatever your task, put yourselves into it, as done for the Lord and not for your masters, <sup>24</sup> since you know that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as your reward; you serve the Lord Christ. <sup>25</sup> For the wrongdoer will be paid back for whatever wrong has been done, and there is no partiality. <sup>4:1</sup> Masters, treat your slaves justly and fairly, for you know that you also have a Master in heaven. <sup>2</sup> Devote yourselves to prayer, keeping alert in it with thanksgiving...

<sup>3</sup> At the same time pray for us as well that God will open to us a door for the word, that we may declare the mystery of Christ, for which I am in prison, <sup>4</sup> so that I may reveal it clearly, as I should. <sup>5</sup> Conduct yourselves wisely toward outsiders, making the most of the time. <sup>6</sup> Let your speech always be gracious, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how you ought to answer everyone.
